Facilities

GVSU baseball camp will take place at the beautiful Laker Baseball field on the Allendale campus. In case of inclement weather, camp will move into the Laker Turf Building, which is one of the finest indoor athletic facilities in the Midwest!

Camp Staff

Jamie Detillion is the Associate Head Baseball Coach at Grand Valley State University. He is in his ninth year coaching at GVSU and has primary responsibilities of hitting, recruiting and camps. Prior to coaching, Detillion spent three years in the Detroit Tigers and Cincinnati Reds organizations including the 2001 season with the West Michigan Whitecaps.

Other members of the GVSU baseball program will be present to instruct and supervise the camp on a daily basis. This group will provide top notch knowledge and experience that will help young baseball players develop their skills and enjoy the game.

The GVSU Baseball Program

The GVSU baseball program has established itself as one of the premiere programs in NCAA Division II. In 2010, GV was the Midwest regional runner-up one game away from the World Series. In 2009, the Lakers were ranked #1 for several weeks, and in 2007 and 2008, GVSU was ranked as high as #3 in the country. GVSU has won seven consecutive GLIAC conference championships. The Lakers have been in seven regional championship games winning four of them advancing to the NCAA Division II World Series with national finishes of seventh in 2009, fourth in 2005, second in 2004, and fifth in 2003.
